Mária Hári started working with András Pető as a volunteer helper after the Second World War and worked closely with him as he developed Conductive Education. On his death in 1967 Dr Hári succeeded him as Director of the Institute, a post she held until her retirement in 1993. During her career she wrote widely on Conductive Education in English, French, German and Russian, besides her native Hungarian.

This is a list of her work also includes interviews with her and items about her.

The English translations can be found in the National Library of Conductive Education.
